

Inaugural Australasia & Pacific Regional Mixed Methods International Research Association Conference

EXPANDING CONCEPTUAL AND METHODOLOGICAL BOUNDARIES

December 4-6, 2019 | Wellington, New Zealand

Keynote speakers:

Professor
Elizabeth Creamer

Professor Pat Bazeley

Associate Professor Caryn
West

The Mixed Methods International Research Association (MMIRA) takes great pleasure in inviting you to participate in the 2019 regional conference which will be held at Massey University, Wellington Wed 4 – Fri 6 December 2019. There will be a full range of paper presentations, round table discussions, rapid fire poster presentations, and Q&A mentoring sessions. There will also be a range of workshops conducted by internationally acclaimed experts in the field of Mixed Methods research.

The MMIRA 2019 Regional Conference will include the following interdisciplinary themes:

- Integrating methods across conceptual and methodological boundaries
- Mixed methods across cultures
- Addressing social complexity and wicked problems
- Migration of people within and across the Australasia & Pacific region
- Mixed methods in practice - managing the process

Key dates:

- Abstract submission opens: Feb 1st 2019
- Registration open: March 1st
- Abstract submission closes: May 1st
- Author acceptance: June 15th
- Super early bird closes: July 15th
- Registration deadline for presenting authors August 15th
- Early bird closes: October 1st

Convenors: Peter Rawlins and Tambri Housen Website: <http://mmira-australasiapacific2019.com/>

MASSEY UNIVERSITY
TE KUNENGA KI PŪREHUROA
UNIVERSITY OF NEW ZEALAND

Australian
National University

MMIRA Mixed Methods
International Research Association