

MMIRA MOOC 2019-2020 Season Schedule

The Mixed Methods International Research Association (MMIRA) is proud to announce the schedule for Seasons 1 and 2 of the MMIRA Massive Open Online Course (MOOC). These modules are available to paid MMIRA members for no additional charge. Find more information in your "Member Resources" page on <http://mmira.org>

Season 1: October 1, 2019 to March 1, 2020

Core Modules: Introduction to Mixed Methods Research

1. Defining Mixed Methods Research (Greene)
2. Qualitatively Oriented Mixed Methods Research (Shannon-Baker)
3. Quantitatively Oriented Mixed Methods Research (Headley)
4. Purposes of Mixed Methods Research (Creamer)
5. Sampling in Mixed Methods Research (Patton)

Specialized Modules: Advanced Application of Mixed Methods Research

1. Theory Development in Mixed Methods Research (Creamer)
2. Combination Strategies (Pluye)
3. Learning Analytics in Mixed Methods Research (Song)
4. Social Network Analysis (Froehlich)
5. Future of Mixed Methods Research (Munce)

Season 2: April 1, 2020 to September 1, 2020

Core Modules: Introduction to Integration & Application of Mixed Methods Research

1. Paradigms and Mixing (Cook)
2. Multidimensional Continua in Mixed Methods Research (Niglas)
3. Ethics in Mixed Methods Research (Poth)
4. Writing Mixed Methods Research Reports (Leech)
5. Fully Integrated Mixed Methods Research (Creamer)

Specialized Modules: Specialized Contexts of Mixed Methods Research

1. Teaching Mixed Methods Research (Shannon-Baker)
2. Mixed Methods in Evaluation (Mertens)
3. Mixed Methods Research in the Caribbean (Cook)
4. Mixed Methods Research in Health Sciences Research (Munce)
5. Arts and Mixed Methods Research (Archibald)

Coming in 2020: Schedule for Seasons 3 and 4 modules. Stay tuned!